Now, tally up the numbers that correspond with your answers.

Write the total here: _____

Record your total online at: www.BagSpeak.org (choose: “Teacher Dashboard” (password is: teachgreen”) then choose “Input assessment results” and record your info.

In case you were wondering, the lower that you score on each question, the more environmental conscious and sustainable you and your lifestyle are.

Interesting fact: US citizens as a whole, scored in 17th place for “green” knowledge and actions among people in both the developed and developing countries throughout the world. For more information, statistics and facts, visit the Greendex website at: <http://environment.nationalgeographic.com/environment/greendex>
